

Public Water Access

Depending on where your event is located, and how many people will be attending the event, you may be able to source all of your water from public amenities.

Implementation

- Think about where public water hook-ups are located, and how accessible this will be to attendees
- Think about the water needs of your event and how many people will be attending

Contacts

Public Works
(805) 781-7048

Links

+ click here for maps showing public access to water