

The Nine Sisters Crossword Puzzle

Down:

1. You can find sea otters and fisherman surrounding me when the winds are calm and so is the sea.
2. I am named for the local indigenous peoples who lived as members of the natural world and viewed their role towards plants and animals as both stewards and consumers, but never abusers.
3. I changed my name in 1964 and I sometimes let the California National Guard train and explore on me.
4. I am the southernmost volcanic sister and from my birds eye all you can see is wine.
5. The granite taken from my sides can be found throughout the town named "Obispo" in honor of me.

Across:

6. I hold religious importance to the Chumash peoples and have no public access.
7. Spanish for "goat" higher than sea level
8. A civil war veteran planted oranges and lemons on me and at night I ignite with light when the days are shortest and darkest.
9. I am the place that lives closest to the bay but don't mistake me for the hill closest to the Pacific Ocean.