

City of San Luis Obispo - Development review process flowcharts

Administrative Use Permit/ Variance/ Parcel Map	2
Planning Commission Use Permit	3
Architectural Review	4
Tract Map	5
Legislative Decision (Rezone, Annexation, GP Amendment, etc.)	6

City of San Luis Obispo Development Review Process Flowchart

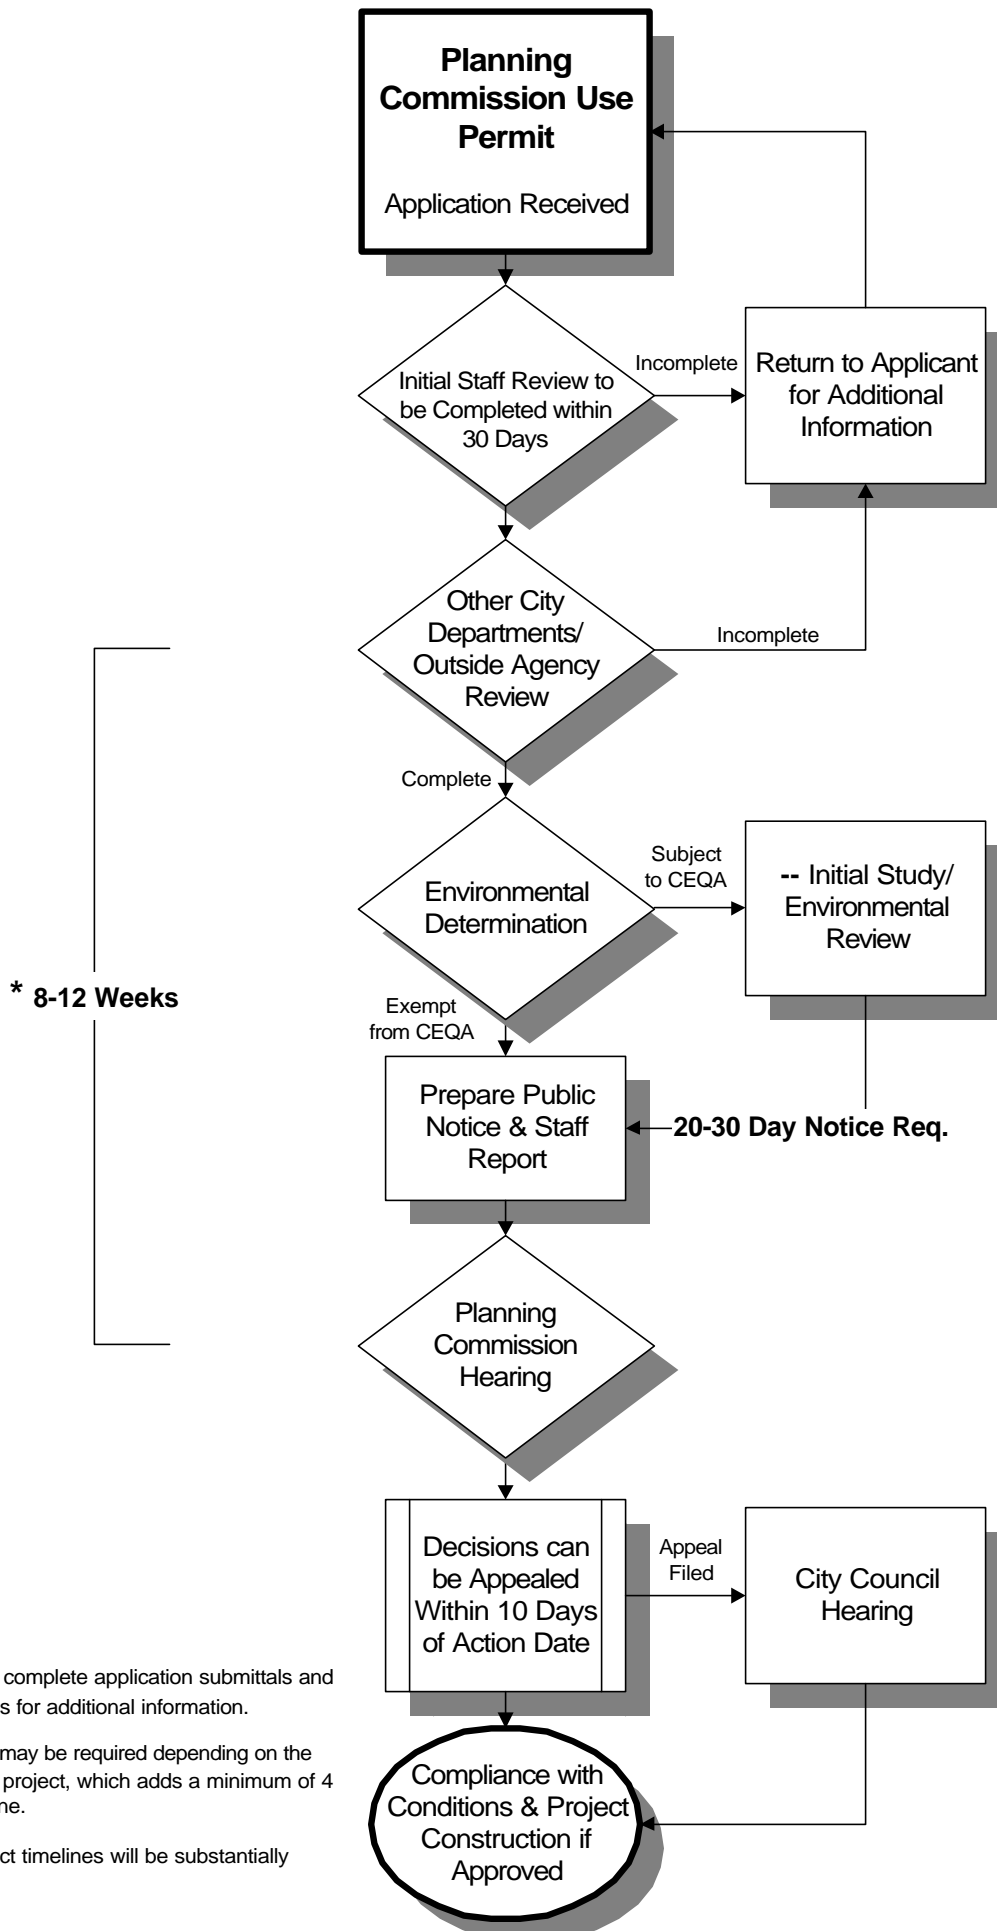

* Timelines are based on complete application submittals and timely response to requests for additional information.

-- Environmental Review may be required depending on the complexity and location of project, which adds a minimum of 4 weeks to the project timeline.

If an EIR is required, project timelines will be substantially increased.

City of San Luis Obispo Development Review Process Flowchart

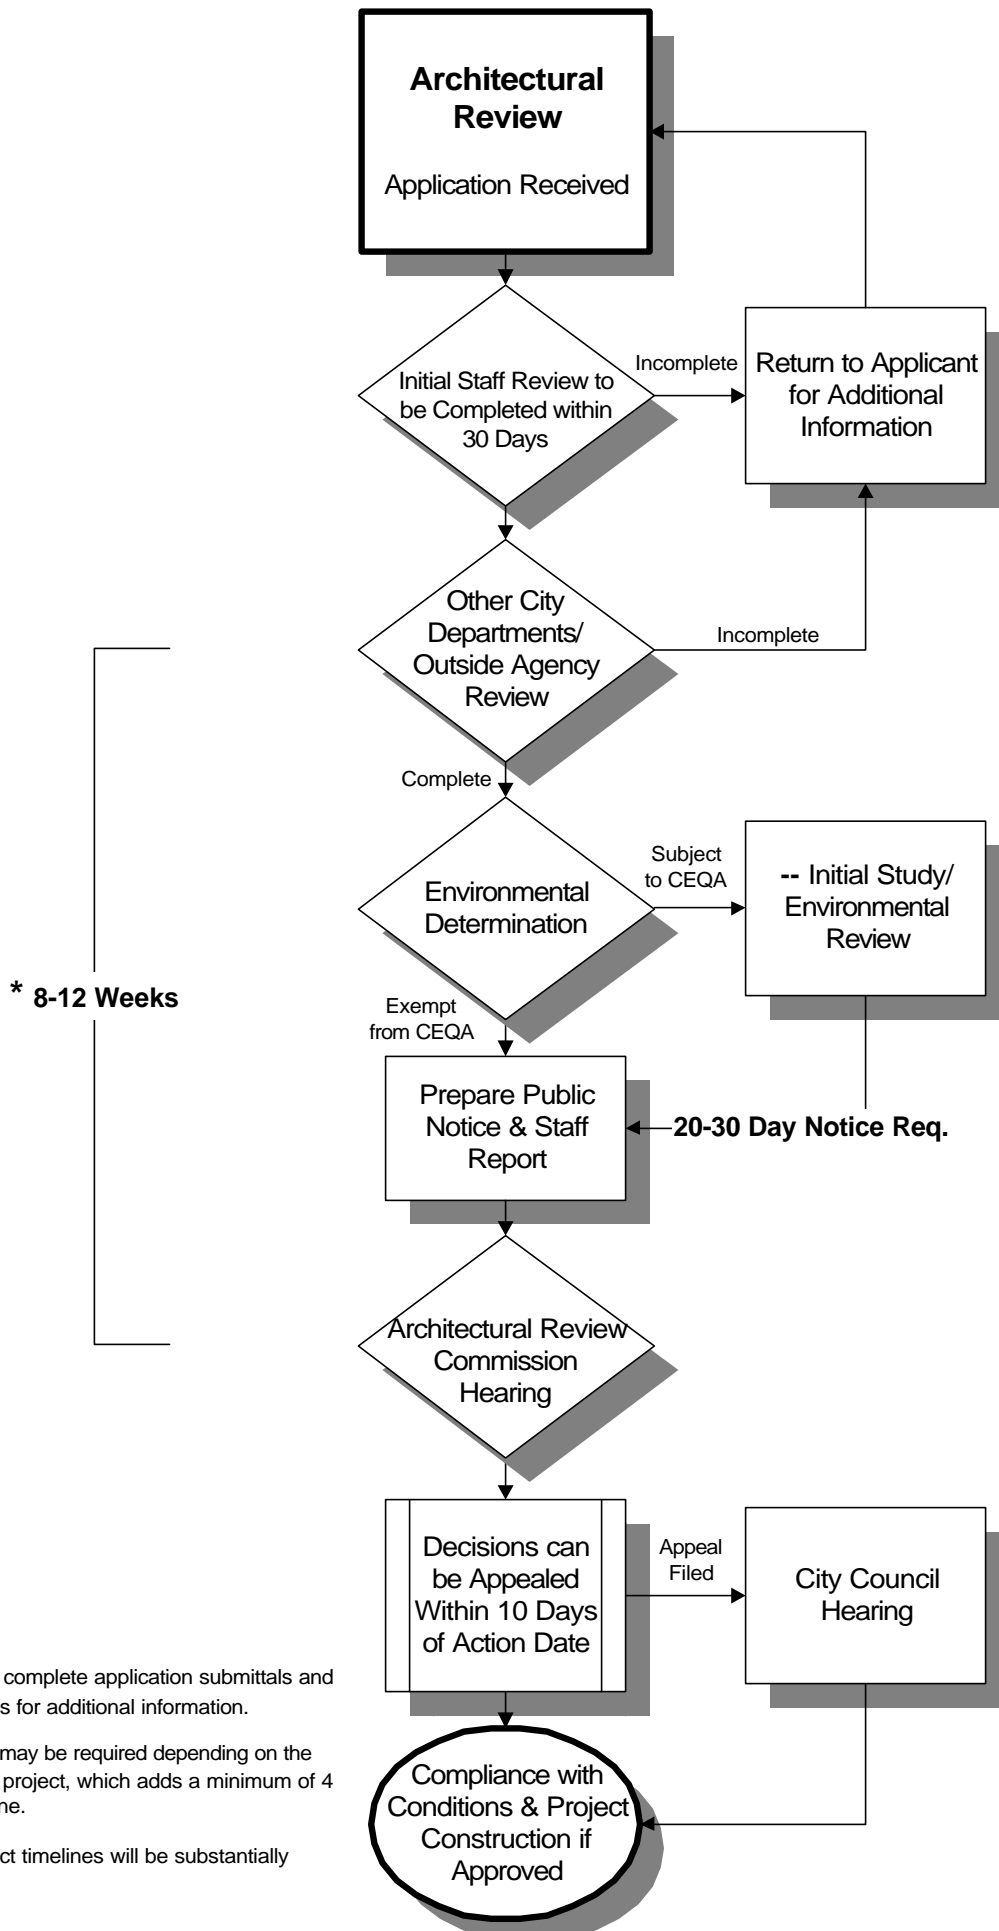

* Timelines are based on complete application submittals and timely response to requests for additional information.

-- Environmental Review may be required depending on the complexity and location of project, which adds a minimum of 4 weeks to the project timeline.

If an EIR is required, project timelines will be substantially increased.

City of San Luis Obispo Development Review Process Flowchart

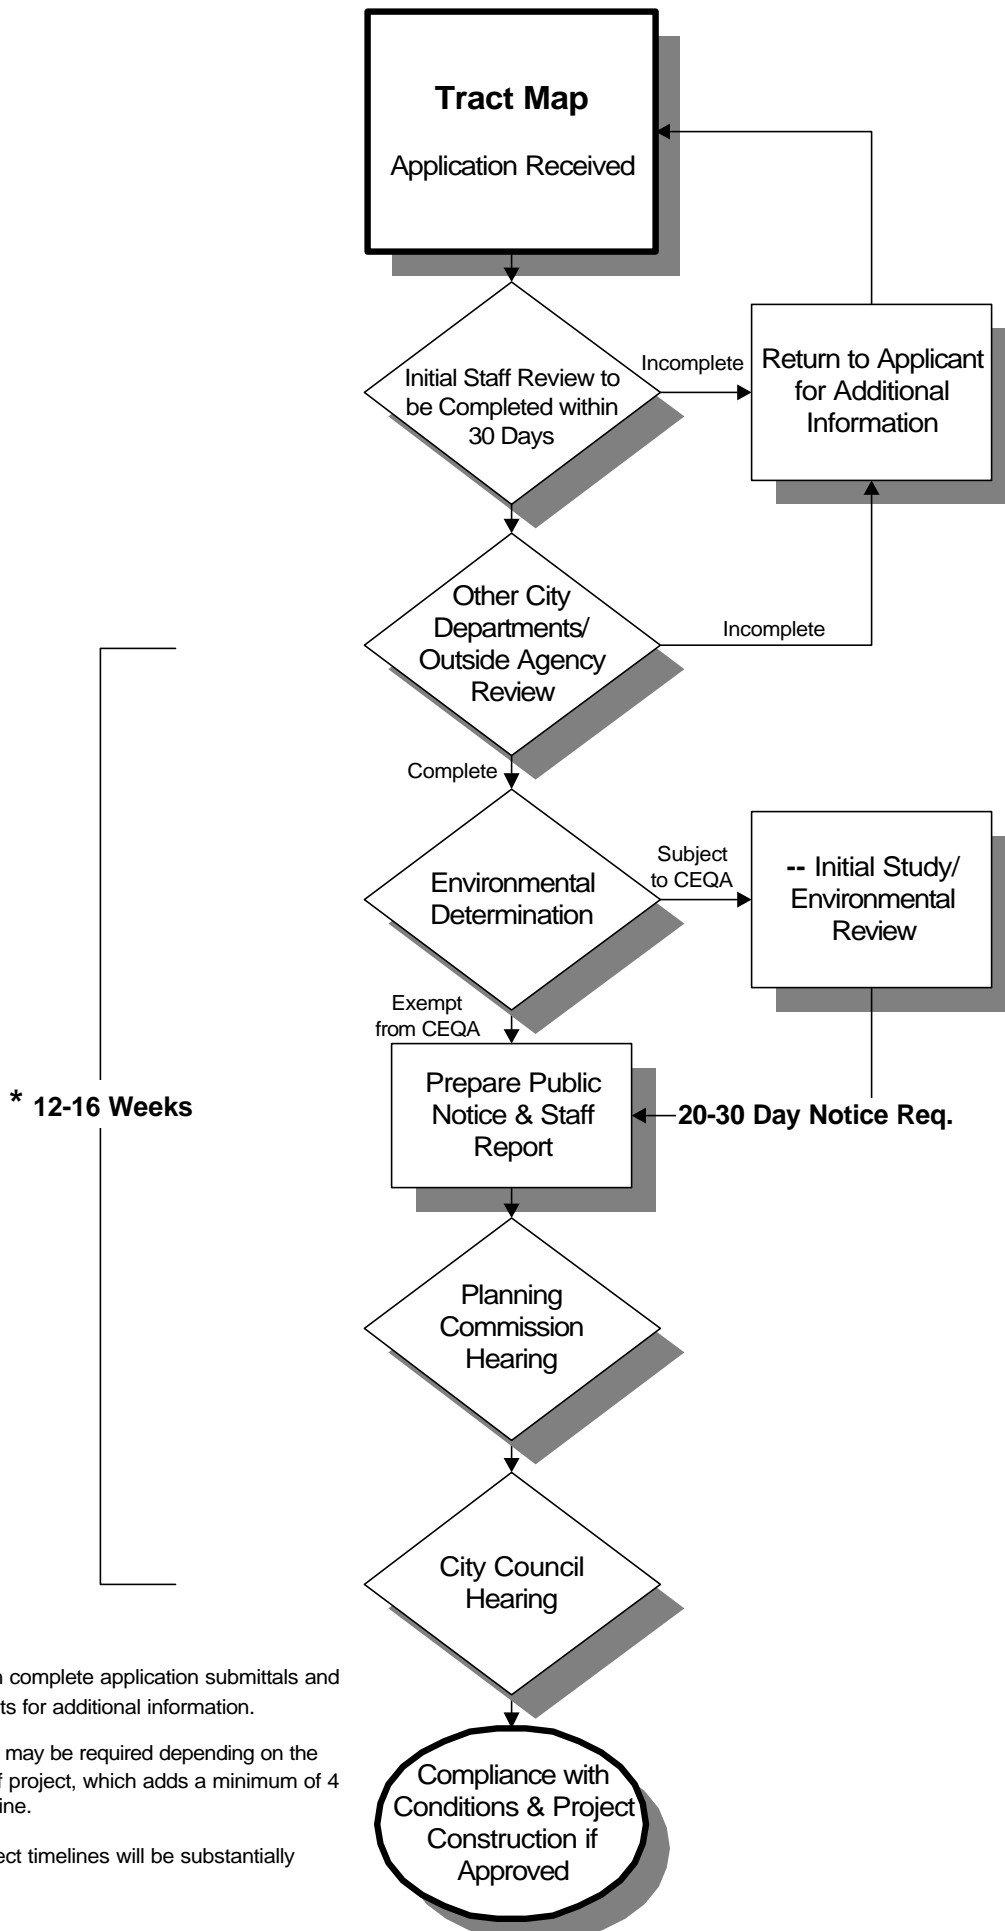

* Timelines are based on complete application submittals and timely response to requests for additional information.

-- Environmental Review may be required depending on the complexity and location of project, which adds a minimum of 4 weeks to the project timeline.

If an EIR is required, project timelines will be substantially increased.

City of San Luis Obispo Development Review Process Flowchart

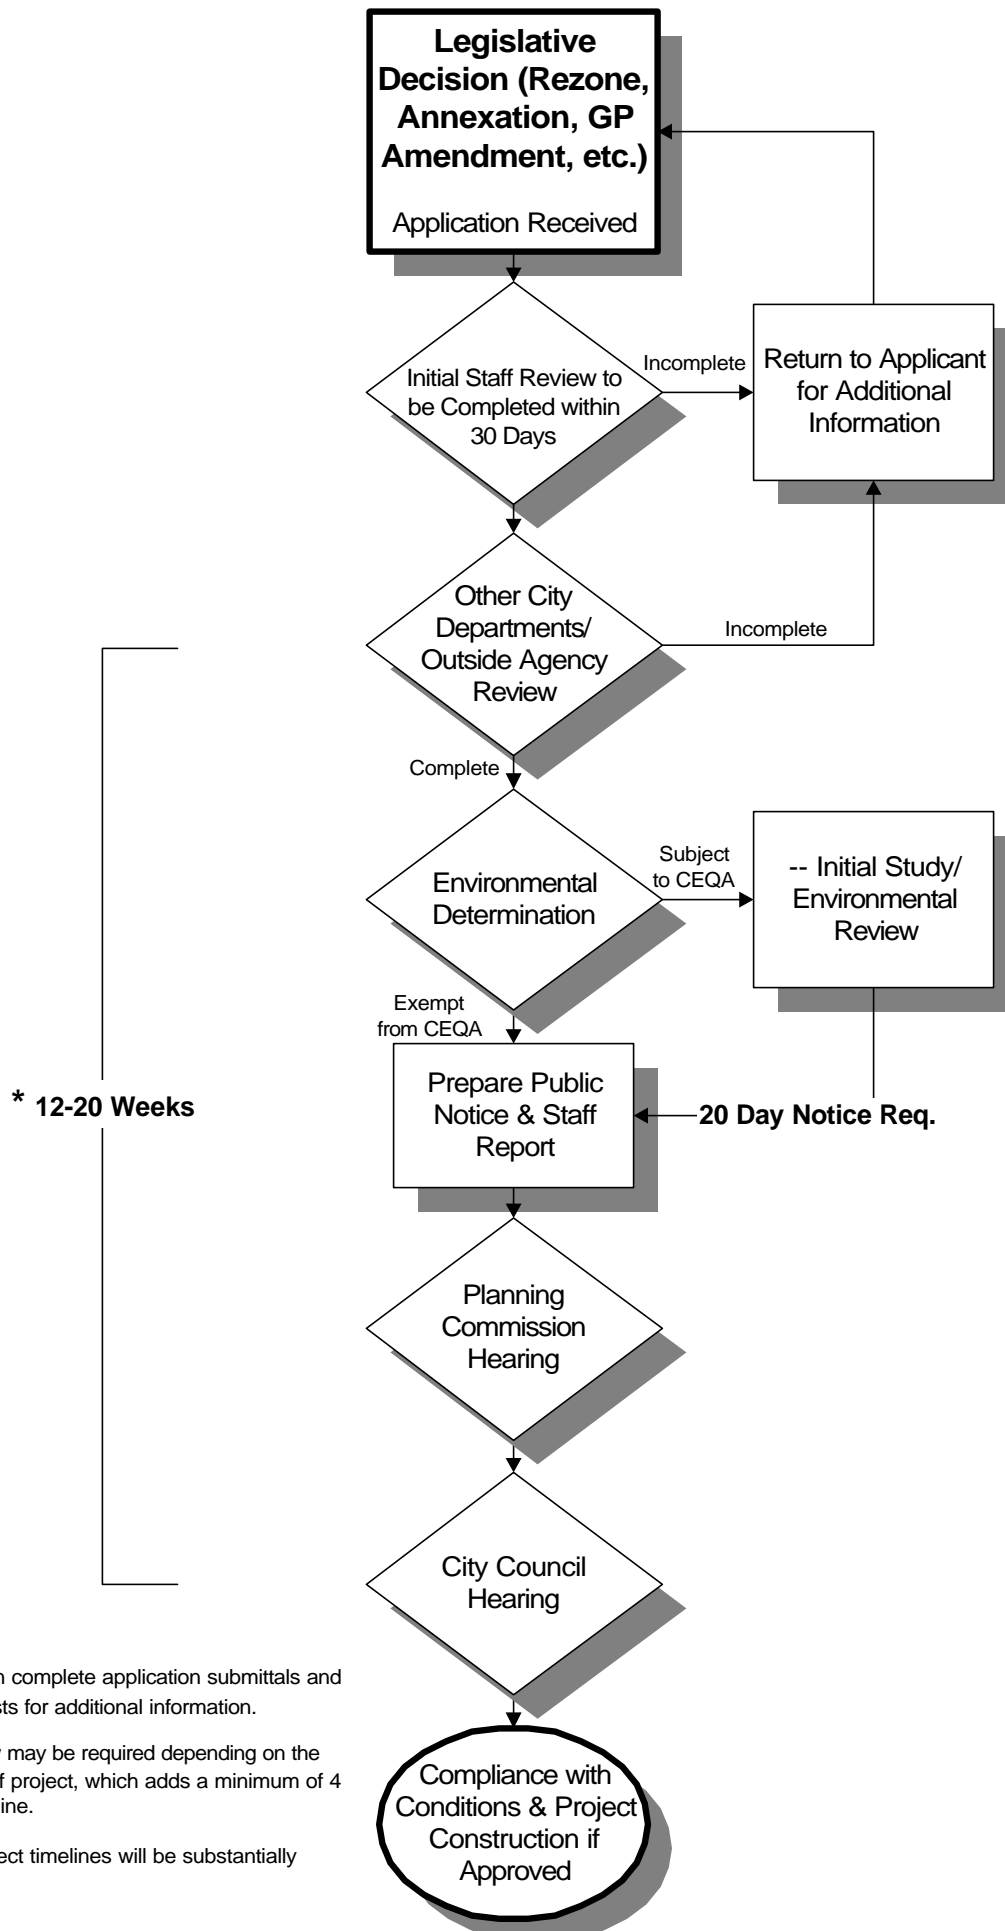

* Timelines are based on complete application submittals and timely response to requests for additional information.

-- Environmental Review may be required depending on the complexity and location of project, which adds a minimum of 4 weeks to the project timeline.

If an EIR is required, project timelines will be substantially increased.

City of San Luis Obispo Development Review Process Flowchart

* Timelines are based on complete application submittals and timely response to requests for additional information.

-- Environmental Review may be required depending on the complexity and location of project, which adds a minimum of 4 weeks to the project timeline.

If an EIR is required, project timelines will be substantially increased.